

David Taylor

Executive Director,
Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association

David N. Taylor is Executive Director the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association (PMA), a statewide trade organization representing the interests of manufacturers in the state's public policy process since 1909.

In addition to overseeing the association's daily operations, he is editor of the PMA Legislative Bulletin, Webmaster of www.pamanufacturers.org, association spokesman, legislative lobbyist, and liaison to PMA members and allied organizations. He is also a columnist for the Pocono Business Journal and host of "Capitol Watch" on Lincoln Radio Journal.

A 1990 graduate of Dickinson College, Taylor previously worked for the Research Department of the Republican National Committee in Washington DC, state Sen. John J. Shumaker (R-Dauphin), and the Pennsylvania Leadership Council.

Immediately prior to joining PMA, he worked in the Washington DC office of U.S. Sen. Rick Santorum (R-Allegheny), where he served as the staff writer for issues before the U.S. Senate Armed Services, Foreign Relations, Intelligence, and Veterans' Affairs committees.
