

KEVIN W. DAVIS

Kevin W. Davis is retired after almost 30 years in bank marketing and human resources. Most recently, he was president of the Davis Group, a business consultancy. Prior to that, he served as CEO of ARC Federal Credit Union in Altoona.

Mr. Davis has a bachelor's degree in biochemistry from Bethany College, and a master's degree in industrial relations and human resources management from Saint Francis College, Loretto, PA.

He has been actively involved with Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week for 21 years as a speaker, company advisor, judge, and member of the Board of Directors.